

Please refer to the handout from Literature for Senior Students

Pages 86-89 for ideas of how to respond to or summarise a novel.

Holiday PREP

Learning Intention:

Developing skills of prediction, reflection and summarising literature. Learn how to keep a reading journal and the factors that influence your reading/understanding of a text.

Success Criteria:

I can...

- Summarise each time I read
- Make predictions of what will happen next, based on hints the text gives me
- Reflect after reading on whether my predictions were right, and why.
- Develop an overall summary of the text

Task:

You will need to choose a novel of your own to read over the holidays. You will then be completing two tasks;

1. A reading journal, filled out each time you read.
  - Summarise each time I read
  - Make predictions of what will happen next, based on hints the text gives me
  - Reflect after reading on whether my predictions were right, and why.
2. An overall summary of the text
  - Use pages 86-89 to help you do this
